

Centre for Space Research and Applications, FUTA

in collaboration with

African Regional Centre for Space Science and Technology Education in English (ARCSSTE-E)

(affiliated with the United Nations)

Obafemi Awolowo University Campus, Ile-Ife, Nigeria.

The Organization of Women in Science for the Developing World (OWSD)

(Federal University of Technology Akure Chapter)

and

Slooh Community Observatory, USA

PRESENT:

National Workshop on Astronomy for Teachers

Theme

Promoting the teaching of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) through Astronomy

Featuring

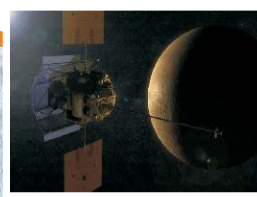

- Presentations designed to bring Astronomy alive in the Nigerian Classroom
- Discussion sessions
- Quiz competitions
- Online Sky Watch

Special Feature

Launching of a collaborative educational project between classrooms in Nigeria and USA so that school children at these different geographical locations can learn together remotely, through the robotic telescope of SLOOH

Guest Speaker & Professional Trainer
LeRoy Larry
American Astrophysicist

Venue:

Hilltop Auditorium, Federal University of Technology Akure (FUTA), Ondo State, Nigeria.

Date:

June 22 – 23,
2016

Time:

9:00am-5:00pm
daily